Course: Perfect Presentation Pronunciation (in English).

This is NOT an English language course. It is assumed that the participants have a good level of spoken English and wish to improve their spoken fluency which requires a practical knowledge of English pronunciation.

Target Group:

Anyone who physically gives or attends presentations or meeting in English in a multicultural / multinational context or participates in videoconferences and/or teleconferences as a means of group communication and wishes to improve the fluency of their spoken English-language skills.

Objective:

To provide attendees with the knowledge and skills required to polish their English language presentation and meeting language skills by focussing on the main problems that can impede communication and also adversely affect listening comprehension.

Course structure:

Direct input followed by a range of individual / group written, reading, spoken & listening activities which lead to a direct application of the material covered to the attendees own presentations.

Course content:
